

Full Water Restriction Lifted in City of Fort Pierre

The leak was found and repair was made. The core pipeline have been turned back on.

Fort Pierre residents are reminded to continue to help conserve water and continue with the alternating watering schedule that is already in place.

Thanks for your continued patience and understanding.